W. B. Smith
for

Gen. W. B. Smith,
C. I. A. Agency
Washington D. C.

Sir: — I am writing you in attempt to collect more than eight years (8) salary due me from the Agency which you now head.
I do this because from the beginning I was selected to work on this project without any chance to decide for myself whether I wished the long hours daily or the many discomforts that go with them.
However I am aware that every American must do his share and I am willing to do mine. But I have an aged Mother an Invalid and one sister who is an Invalid with two young children, then another sister with one child.

One sister in the Hospital and the other sister trying to carry on getting the kids off to school and nurse my Mother. I have three Brothers but they are usually behind
- front about assistance. I am in desperate need for my money.

I wrote to Admiral Hellenkott in 1950, but never received any satisfactory consideration. and I wrote you from Columbia S.C. in 1950 but did not hear from you.
I hope you will give this matter your careful attention.

and now the P. I am proud of my forced services. I'm sure that you agree that eight years is too long for any ones salary to be held up. it sounds like Russia.

Thanking you in advance
I remain very truly yours,

NOTE FOR RECORD: Basic states: I am writing to ask your aid in collecting wages due me from September 1943 to date. These wages are due me from a certain agency (very hush hush) that is engaged in Intelligence data and superior methods of communications. The course involves a great deal of psychological findings as well as years and years of tedious, laborious, and monotonous isolation, which makes it impossible to engage in any other work. At present because I have not received one penny toward maintenance I'm forced to live under conditions that are a constant threat to my health, and lack the tools for a forced twenty-four hour shift. I'm sure I've provided enough details here that will enable you to recognize this particular agency and trust you will give this matter your immediate attention. Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience, I remain very truly yours.
